....SOCIAL NEWS FROM ALL SECTIONS OF THE OLD DOMINION....

The Mecklenburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHASITY CITY, Va., June 15.—Owing to the large gathering of young people here on Monday evening, the management tendered them a complimentary german, the usual dance nights being Wednesday and Saturday. The occasion was entered into with much spirit, and thoroughly enjoyed. Those dancing were Miss Mary Burwell, Chase City; Mrs. Benjamin McMillan, Norfolk; Mrs. J. D. Miot, Columbia, S. C.; Miss Hettie Baugh, Danville, Va.; Miss Katherine Anderson, Hanover county, Va.; Miss Mary Whitaker, Raleigh; Mr. E. W. Donnelly, New York City; Mr. C. E. Weisenburgh, Lexington, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. LeGrand, Danville, Va.; and Mrs. C. S. Preston, Norfolk, Va.

The chaperons were Mrs. W. P. Whitaker, Raleigh; Mrs. F. W. Clark, Greenville, S. C.; and Mrs. W. B. Morrison, Greensboro, N. C.

The Mecklenburg sustains its reputation as an ideal place for honey-mooners who flee the maddening crowd. During the past week Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miot, Columbia, S. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Grant, included the Mecklenburg in the wedding itinerary.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin McMillan, of Mobile, Ala., are a delightful and handsome young couple, spending some time here.

The circle of young married women has had very charming additions during the past week in Mrs. Samuel Ferebee and Mrs. James Webb Cole, of Norfolk, Va.

Dr. T. B. Edmunds, of Reldsville, N. C., arrived last week to resume his position as assistant to Dr. Walton, of the maternity department, having just completed a special course in nose, chest and operative surgery in the College of Physicians and Surgeons attached to the Baltimore City Hospital.

Dr. Edmunds was warmly welcomed by his many friends here, his professional worth and social gifts being fully appreciated during his previous stay here.

Miss Mary Burwell, of Chase City, who has been spending the winter in New Orleans, returned last week, adding much to the social life of the town and the functions here.

Richmond has a very attractive family group in Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carneal and Miss Carneal, who arrived Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Graves are a very handsome and attractive couple just arrived from Coatesville, Penn.

Other recent arrivals are Mrs. Marian Redd, Reldsville, N. C.; Mr. A. D. Staehling, Danville, Va.; Mr. C. E. H. Sudler, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. F. W. Donnelly, New York City; Mr. C. E. Weisenburgh, Lexington, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. LeGrand, Danville, Va.; and Mrs. C. S. Preston, Norfolk, Va.

Fredericks Hall.

FREDERICK'S HALL, VA., June 15.—Mr. J. H. Crank left Tuesday for the Jamestown Exposition.

Miss Jennie Williams, of Ardmore, Ind. Ter., is guest of Miss Agnes Segar.

Mrs. S. B. Moon, of Richmond, Va., who has been visiting her father, Capt. W. B. Pendleton, left Thursday morning for Baltimore.

Mr. Phillip Pendleton, of Pittsburg, Pa., after a pleasant stay in Virginia, has returned to his home.

Mrs. J. H. Crank is at home again, having made a brief visit to friends in Louisiana.

Mr. P. D. Hamrick, of Raleigh, N. C., has returned home after spending some time with the family of Mrs. N. C. Harris.

Mrs. N. C. Harris is guest of Mr. W. A. Claude Pettit, in Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Lamar, of Georgia, who has been a recent guest of Dr. Lewis S. Pendleton, has returned to her Southern home.

Crozet.

CROZET, VA., June 15.—Miss Carrie Owens, daughter of C. W. Owens, who has been teaching school at Clifton Forge, Va., is at home for the summer.

Messrs. T. L. Early and T. E. Powers have returned from Hot Springs, Va., whither they had gone with Miss Ida Early, daughter of Hon. J. A. Early, of Doyleville, Va. Mrs. Minnie Meadows, of Roanoke, Va., a younger sister of Miss Ida, is staying with her. They are stopping at the Homestead.

Eugene Brown is stopping a few days with his uncle, D. H. Brown, here. He goes to Asheville, N. C., as a delegate from Miller School to the annual convention of Y. M. C. A., which will be held in that city next week.

Mrs. Belle O. Brown, of Washington, D. C., will be the guest of D. H. Brown for a few days, when she will go to Hot Springs, Va. Her little daughter, Miss Louise, comes with her to Crozet.

South Boston Social.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., June 15.—Mrs. Philip H. Johnson, of this place, is visiting her old home, near Bedford City. She expects to be absent several weeks.

Mrs. Clinton Scheer, formerly Miss Bobbie Fourqurean, of Beaumont, Texas, is visiting Mrs. John Walker, at the home of Hon. Joseph Stebbins, Jr. Mrs. Scheer was a resident of South Boston a number of years ago as Miss Fourqurean, and her many friends are delighted to see her again.

Mr. T. Edgar Harvey, national historian of the T. P. A., spent a few days in town this week.

Miss Ella Fourqurean, of San Marcos, Texas, is the guest of Miss May Fowles at this place.

Mr. R. Hunter Beazley and wife, of this place, are viewing the exposition at Jamestown, this week.

Mrs. Thomas Hinkins, of Clover, was the guest of Miss Louise Penick this week.

An approaching marriage of interest to Halifax, is that of Miss Bessie Lovance, of Redden, Va., to Mr. John L. Cole, also of that place. The wedding will take place next Tuesday, June 18th, at Mendeville Presbyterian Church. Both parties are well known here.

Col. Tom Fourqurean, of San Marcos, Texas, is visiting the home of Mrs. Bettie Jordan at this place. Col. Fourqurean was a member of the old Black Walnut Cavalry Company, and gained distinction during the war. He is a brother to Messrs. Bettie F. Jordan, Joseph Stebbins, and J. M. McCorkle.

Another June wedding will take place at Mendeville Presbyterian Church next Tuesday, the 18th, when Miss Evelyn Parkdale, of Mendeville, will become the bride of Dr. Daniel Merritt, of Nathalie, Va. Dr. Merritt was a resident of this place several years ago.

Miss Nannie Carrington, of this place, is visiting in Newport News this week.

Floyd.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FLOYD, VA., June 15.—Peter Slusher, of Roanoke College, and G. L. Howard, Charlotte.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 15.—A pretty church wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian Church at Huntersville, this county, when Miss Sara Shannon Ransom became the bride of Rev. William E. West, pastor of the church.

John Mills Bingham and J. D. Brown, pastor of Hopewell Presbyterian Church, Lawton, N. C., were the bridesmaids.

A marriage which surprised local society people as much as it interested them, took place unexpectedly Friday night, when Miss Alice Baird, daughter of Major and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, of Raleigh, took for her husband, Mr. R. D. Smith, a South Carolina minister for a midnight ceremony.

The young people had known each other but a week, and had given no hint of their intentions to anyone.

Mr. R. D. Smith has issued invitations to the marriage of his daughter, Miss Alice Baird, to Mr. R. D. Smith, of South Carolina, at home, June 25th, at home. Owing to recent bereavement in the family, the ceremony will be a quiet affair, no cards having been issued in town.

Miss Blocker Reid has returned to the city from a visit to relatives at Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Bravard McDowell will sail July 4th for Europe, where they will spend the summer.

Warrenton Social.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WARRENTON, VA., June 15.—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. George have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eloise, to Mr. John Robert George, of Smyth county, on Wednesday, June 26th. The marriage is of much interest to the friends of the bride here and in Tazewell county, where she formerly lived until of recent years.

The groom is a promising and popular man in his home county, and is a son of Hon. W. W. George, who formerly represented Smyth county in the Legislature.

An association has been formed in this county, under the name of the Farmers' and Business Men's Association, for the promotion and protection by organized and united effort of the public interests of the citizens of this county. The association is composed of five district branches, each district to be represented by its local committee, in whom the business of that district will be vested. The committees in each district will be known as an executive committee, and for the Centre Warrenton, the committee elected this week is composed of D. P. Wood, chairman; J. B. Grayson, secretary; A. P. Payne, treasurer; Alex. Edwards, H. C. Grooms, H. T. Hutton, C. E. Holtzclaw, L. D. Passano and C. M. White.

Admiral and Mrs. Hutchins, U. S. N., are guests at Capt. Edward Carter's for the summer.

R. N. Brooke, of Warrenton and Washington, and who is an artist of note, has had under his direction for ten days past a party of young artists, who are stopping at "Millfield," the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Max Albee, and are sketching the beautiful and picturesque scenery in Cedar Run Valley.

Mr. John C. Grooms and son, of Philadelphia, are at the home of Mr. H. C. Grooms on a brief visit.

Miss Russell Robinson, of "Arlene," leaves to-day for Mount Pocono, Pennsylvania, for the summer.

Mrs. Thomas Price and Miss Price, of New York, are at Mrs. M. M. Green's, and will remain indefinitely.

Mrs. J. C. Stein and sons are visiting her mother, at Bath Beach, N. Y.

Mrs. Maude and family, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are stopping at the Warren Green Hotel, and will remain until July.

At the town election this week the old officers were re-elected: T. C. Thornton, Mayor; G. L. Fletcher, recorder; and the following members of the Town Council: A. R. Bartonstein, William Martin, W. A. Garner, H. T.

Gloucester Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, Miss Whitmore, Governor and Mrs. Grant, of Colorado, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Blow, of "Belleville."

Miss Margaret Tabb is in Norfolk, guest of Mrs. John Tabb and Mrs. Sanders, at "Olney Cottage," Ghent.

Miss Brook Byrd has returned to her home, "White Hall," from Fauquier.

Mr. Cecil Hlokon, of Danville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones, at "Ditchley," on the North river.

Rev. George Dams and Miss Page Dams, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jannay, of "Roaring Springs."

Mrs. Toogood and Miss Buford are guests of the Misses Dabney, of the Exchange.

Mrs. Goodridge, of Norfolk, is with the Misses Tabb, of Newstead.

Major J. Coleman Anderson, of Charleston, W. Va., who has been the guest of Dr. William R. Jaeger, left on Tuesday for the exposition, on his way home.

Bon Air Personals.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BON AIR, VA., June 15.—A camping party left here the first of the week for Cape Henry. Among the members were Mrs. T. M. R. Talcott, Miss Elizabeth Cocke, Miss Marie Cocke, Miss Jennie Talcott, Miss Hallie Talcott, Miss Cary Talcott, Messrs. Bates McCluer, William Cocke and Preston Cocke.

Lieutenant Edward Hazen and Messrs. Lucien Bass and Haskins Hobson, of the Richmond Blues, have returned from Jamestown.

Mr. Richard Prindle has returned from Kirkville, Mo., where he is taking a course in osteopathy.

Miss Miriam Prindle is home again after a pleasant visit to friends in Washington, D. C., and Port Deposit, Md.

Miss Madge McCready has returned from the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. Polk Miller will chaperon a party of young folks for ten days. They will be in camp near Norfolk, on Dr. B. B. McClellan's farm. Misses Virginia Miller, Nellie McClure, Eliza Montgomery and Rannell Talcott leave with Mrs. Miller on next Tuesday. They will be joined later by Messrs. Bates McCluer and Stanley Blanton and others from Norfolk.

Winchester.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, VA., June 15.—Mr. and Mrs. James Gerding, of West Chester, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Gerding, to Mr. R. Garret Miller, formerly of Woodstock, Va., but now of Washington, D. C. The marriage will take place at the bride's home next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. They will reside in Washington.

Professor Ira C. Whitacre, formerly of this county, and who some time since became principal of the Galtersburg (Md.) Academy, has been elected a delegate to the annual meeting of the Maryland School Teachers' Association, which will be held June 25th-26th at Jamestown.

One of the distinguished visitors to Winchester recently was Captain Julius L. Hempstead, the well known author of "New Orleans." Captain Hempstead was the guest of Captain and Mrs. George W. Kurtz, and this was his first visit to the Valley since he fought around her forty-five years ago with the "Stonewall Brigade," of which he was drill-master. He was a cadet at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., when the Civil War broke out, and upon enlisting was assigned to the Fifth Virginia as drill-master. Captain Hempstead is one of the forty-two survivors of the "Immortal Six Hundred," those Confederate officers who suffered great indignities and hardships at the hands of the Federals at Fort Fisher.
